
BUDGET & TAX DEADLINES WORKSHEET: SIMPLIFIED

Educational Only

Instructions:

- A. This form is only to be used by small cities (those that levy under $500,000 in total property taxes and have a tax rate under $.50/$100), or large cities but only if the proposed budget does not include a proposed tax rate that would increase in the effective or rollback tax rate.*
- B. Begin with the proposed deadline for adopting the next year's tax rate, then work backwards to calculate the various steps leading up to that deadline. Start at the end!
- C. When computing a period of days, the first day is excluded and the last day is included.*
- D. If the last day of any period is a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the period is extended to include the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday.*
- E. Public hearings cannot be held on a Saturday or Sunday.*
- F. Public hearings must be held within the city limits.*
- G. See the legal citations outline following the worksheet for the latest possible deadlines, citations to relevant statutes, and a more detailed explanation of each deadline.*

TAX & BUDGET DEADLINES: LEGAL CITATIONS

September 29 – last day to adopt budget and last day to adopt tax rate. In addition to the vote on the budget as a whole, the city council must take a separate ratification vote to adopt any budget that will raise total property tax revenue. Once the budget has been adopted, the tax rate may be adopted.

September 28 – last day for public hearing on budget. (hearing shall be before the date of the tax levy and at least 15 days after the proposed budget is filed with the clerk) Also, city must take some sort of action on the budget at conclusion of hearing. (action can include adopting or postponing adoption-LGC § 102.007)

September 26 – last day to post agenda for meeting to adopt tax rate (per Texas Open Meetings Act, agenda for meeting must be posted seventy-two hours in advance-GC Ch. 551).

September 25 – last day to post agenda for public hearing on budget (per Texas Open Meetings Act, agenda for meeting must be posted seventy-two hours in advance-GC Ch. 551).

Tuesday, September 22 – last day to provide public notice of tax rate by one of two methods: (a) mailing a notice of the proposed tax rate to each owner of taxable property in city, or (b) publishing notice of proposed tax rate in the legal notices section of a newspaper having general circulation in the city. Tax Code § 26.052(c). The city cannot vote on a tax rate higher than this noticed rate unless the city complied with the tax rate increase notices applicable to larger taxing cities. Tax Code § 26.052(d). This only applies to small cities.

September 18 – last day to publish notice of budget hearing (at least 30 days and not later than 10 days before the budget hearing-LGC § 102.0065(d)). The budget hearing notice must contain specific information about property tax increases.

August 29 – last day for budget officer to file proposed budget with municipal clerk (before 30th day before tax rate adopted-LGC §102.005). The city secretary must post the budget on the city's website, if it operates one. A special cover page is required if the budget will raise more total property taxes than the previous year.

August 7 - (or as soon as practicable thereafter) publish effective and rollback rates and other notices. This only applies to large cities.
