Liz Elleson is Now Full-Time

Elizabeth “Liz” Elleson, Associate Attorney

The Firm is proud to announce that Liz is now full-time. During the past few months, Liz has applied her twenty-plus-years of legal experience to a range of legal issues for our client cities. These have included:

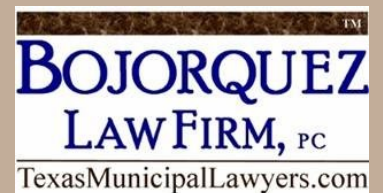

- ◆ ordinance drafting,
- ◆ contracts,
- ◆ franchise agreements,
- ◆ sales and use tax elections,
- ◆ budget adoption, personnel,
- ◆ eminent domain,
- ◆ and public information requests.

Liz also understands the challenges our clients experience on a personal level, having served as school district trustee and a neighborhood association president. She has used her community relations and public communication skills to help our clients develop and reach their goals through the law. Her news release, for example, highlighted plans to improve a client city’s court processes with the help of the Firm’s Court Consulting Program.

It was featured in The Clifton Record and by other local media.

Liz’ credentials include working as an assistant attorney general and as a legislative assistant during sessions at the Texas State Capitol. She received her law degree from the University of Texas.

Congratulations, Liz!
