Theresa Pham—Part-Time Law Clerk

Theresa Pham is the firm's new part-time law clerk. She is a graduate from Texas Tech Law School and recently sat for the Texas Bar. Theresa will be helping the firm with:

- ◆ conducting legal research and reviewing current law
- ◆ drafting memoranda and pleadings
- ◆ drafting ordinances and resolutions
- ◆ responding to public records requests
- ◆ handling assignments involving land use, water and other municipal issues

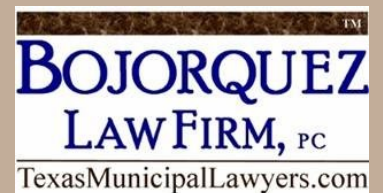

Prior to joining the team, Theresa was a staff editor and an articles editor for the law school's Estate Planning and Community Property Journal.

Theresa also worked as an intern and a court visitor coordinator for Lubbock County through the Office of Dispute Resolution. There, she managed the court visitor program on guardianship cases for the county and surrounding counties.

Theresa also has law firm experience having worked as a law clerk at Franks & Pleasant in Lubbock. Her work included drafting court orders, applications and motions.

Theresa's experience and conscientious attitude towards tasks makes her a great addition to the team.

Welcome Theresa!
