Dottie is Back!

Dottie Palumbo has returned to the Firm full-time. For the past three and half years, Dottie has worked with us on a limited basis while she served as City Attorney of Galveston. Now, she is available to serve all of our clients in a greater capacity. She will office out of Austin, DFW, and Galveston.

As Assistant General Counsel for the Texas Municipal League (TML) from 1994 to 2000, Dottie provided training, legal guidance and legislative advocacy. She was a registered lobbyist who helped draft, enact, and defeat legislation.

Dottie has been a Board Member of the Texas City Attorney Association (TCAA) since 2009. She was recognized as a Local Government Fellow by the International Municipal Lawyers Association (IMLA). Dottie has served as faculty chair, panel moderator, and speaker for the UT School of Law's Annual Land Use Conference, speaking on such issues as downtown revitalization, land development codes, and planning and zoning law. She worked with the Denton County Transportation Board as Board Secretary. Dottie is the Public Affairs chairperson for the Texas Coalition of Cities for Utility Issues. As one of the most tenured municipal lawyers in Texas, she served as Assistant City Attorney or City Attorney for Abilene, Denton, Galveston, Garland, Highland Village and Midland.

Dottie's experience is extensive, and includes primary concentrations in Land Use, Utilities, Gas Well Development, and Legislation.

Her knowledge of Municipal Law, familiarity with best practices, and state-wide perspective are assets to our firm and our clients.

Welcome Back, Dottie!
